ALABAMA
NATIONAL FEMALE COLLEGE, Tuscaloosa, Ala.

next Session of this Institution, opened on Monday, October 1, under the Presidency of RICHARD J. BATTLE, A. M., Professor of Greek Literature in the City of Alabama. A full corps of Professors and Teachers will be in place.

College, now concluding its session, has been highly prosperous. Trustees, ambitious of giving it commanding position, are about to add to the present spacious and beautiful edifice. This coming building will have cost over $1000, and will accommodate the Hundred Boarders, affording ample arrangements of Departments of Instruction.

The College contains a new and complete apparatus, and a number of Musical Instruments of both American and European manufacture. The Musical Department under charge of unrivaled Master, PROFESSOR SCHELL, will continue as heretofore.

The city of Tuscaloosa is famed for healthfulness. Not one case of serious illness has occurred among the pupils, during the two years of the existence of the College.

For particulars address the President, Tuscaloosa, July, 1860.

W. Johnson,
Architect and Builder,
